

JANE D. HAYSE
Transportation Planning Division Chief
Atlanta Regional Commission

Jane received her Bachelors in Economics and Political Science degree from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. She also received a Masters degree in Urban and Regional Planning from Florida State University.

Her 22 years of professional planning experience includes 3 years with the Metropolitan Council of the Twin Cities, 2 years in local planning in Cobb County Georgia and almost 17 years with the Atlanta Regional Commission. She has been Division Chief since 1998. Under her tenure, a three Regional Transportation Plans have developed. She supervises 25 staff in the transportation planning division.

She is an active member of several professional societies including the Women's Transportation Seminar, the Association of Metropolitan Planning Organizations, and the National Association of Regional Councils. She is a member of TRB's Metropolitan Planning, Policy and Processes committee. She is also a member of the NCHRP 8-53 panel, "Integrating Freight into the Transportation Planning Process". She was named 2002 Transportation Woman of the Year by the Atlanta chapter of the Women's Transportation Seminar.